

Dosbarth Pen-y-Fan (Year 1 & 2)

Summer Term 2024

The activities outlined below have been arranged under the headings on the new Curriculum for Wales.

Language, Literacy & Communication

- Stories - Greek Myths and Legends
- Information writing - Greece
- Explanation writing – Forces and Energy
- Newspaper – Reporting on the Mini Olympics
- Poetry – Feelings

Mathematics & Numeracy

- Measure – measure capacity in litres and in multiples of 100ml.
- Place Value
- Multiplication/Division with remainders
- Times Tables: x2 x5 x10
- Addition/Subtraction
- Right angles
- Time – o'clock, half past, quarter past, quarter to
- Problem Solving linked to topic.

Health & Well-Being

- Lifestyle - Identify and discuss characteristics of athletes.
- Talk about who is special to us and why.
- Recognise that everyone has a unique blend of abilities and needs; link to Paralympics.
- Recognise the importance of teamwork and working together.

Expressive Arts

- Create logos.
- Explore different sport poses and create sculptures using foil.
- Design a ceramic pot which reflects an aspect of the Olympic games.

Science & Technology

- Recording our achievements on Seesaw using text, images, pictures and sounds.
- Forces and Energy
- Magnetism

Humanities

- Learning about Welsh Olympic athletes past and present.
- Exploring different cultures and countries.
- Compare and contrast Olympic games past and present.